The prize money for Fenesta Open Men's & Women's Category was doubled last year celebrating the 20th year of Fenesta Open and a kit allowance was also announced for Semi-Finalists & above for the Under 18, 16 & 14 Categories. The same will continue.

Announcing the 21st year for Fenesta Open National Tennis Championship, Mr. Ajay S. Shriram, Chairman and Senior Managing Director and Mr Vikram S Shriram, Vice Chairman and Managing Director, DCM Shriram Ltd. said, "We are committed to encourage young and talented tennis players in India and give them a platform from which they can move on to higher levels. We have received an overwhelming response from the young talent year after year. We sincerely believe that the young players would continue to benefit from platform provided by DCM Shriram and help India emerge prominently in the International tennis scenario."

DCM Shriram entered the tennis scenario in 1992 with organizing the Open Tennis Championship for Delhi state under the aegis of All India Tennis Association (AITA). In 1998, seeing the excellent organizing capabilities of DCM Shriram, the AITA found the organization competent to organize the National Hardcourt Tennis Championship. Since 1994, DCM Shriram has been organising the championship at the DLTA complex in New Delhi every year. It was rechristened as FENESTA OPEN NATIONAL TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP in 2011. The tournament is a testament to DCM Shriram's policy of promoting sports in order to provide the young sporting talent a platform. DCM Shriram continues to keep the great tradition of supporting the latent tennis playing talent of India afloat under its brand name 'FENESTA'.

Over the years, the tournament has seen some of India's most promising talent take to the courts at the prestigious DLTA. Some of the prominent names among these are Mens ; J. Vishnu Vardhan, Rohan Bopanna, Somdev Devvarman, Jeevan Nedunchezian, Nitin Kirtane, Yuki Bhambri, Women's: Sania Mirza, Sai Jayalakshmi, Rushmi Chakravarty, Sonal Phadke, Prerna Bhambri, Radhika Tulpule, Rutuja Bhosale, Lisa Pereira, Isha Lakhani and Ankita & Sanaa Bhambri among others and promises to feature many more upcoming tennis stars in the future.
